9	On January 27, 2022, defendant James Earl Talley was charged by Indictment with being a felon
20	in possession of a firearm and ammunition, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section
21	922(g)(1).
22	This matter came before the Court on February 15, 2022, for a detention hearing. The defendant
23	was present and represented by Assistant Federal Public Defender Daniel Blank. Assistant United
24	States Attorney Nicholas M. Parker appeared for the government. The government moved for detention
25	on the basis of danger to the community and risk of flight, and the defendant waived his right to seek
26	release, without prejudice to his right to seek review of his detention at a later date.
27	For the reasons stated on the record in open court, the Court orders the defendant detained
28	pending trial in this matter.
	[PROPOSED] DETENTION ORDER 3:22-cr-00028 SI (LB)	1	v. 11/01/201	8

The present order serves as written findings of fact and a statement of reasons as required by Title 18, United States Code, Section 3142(i)(1). This finding is made without prejudice to the defendant's right to seek review of his detention, subject to the requirements of 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f).

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i), IT IS ORDERED THAT:

- 1. The defendant be, and hereby is, committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- 2. The defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and
- 3. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to an authorized United States Marshal for the purpose of any appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: February 16, 2022

United States Magistrate Judge
